1 business owners, and then yeah, we quickly realized that
2 people can get -- there's politics involved and people can
3 get happy or angry with what you say.

4 Q. And what you said did make people angry; right?

5 A. If I'm defining "We Strike" and the 12 broken
6 windows, yes, they must have been pretty angry. I just
7 wanted to support small business. I was trying my best to 8 do everything to maintain the location.

9 Q. But apart from the "We Strike" vandalism, you had 10 social media feedback and comments where people were quite
11 upset with the public stance made through Cure; right?

12 MR. WEAVER: Objection.

13 A. Yes. The -- we were asked, Why isn't your
14 facilities open fully to the residents of CHOP and CHAZ,
15 you know, why didn't you open 24/7 your bathroom or 16 something like that, and I produced that.

17 BY MS. PRATT:

18 Q. So there were people who were unhappy with Cure.

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. How do you know that people didn't avoid Cure for 21 that reason?

22 MR. WEAVER: Objection.

23 A. We just at the moment wanted to -- well, same
24 reason as before: Sales. We saw sales at the time even 25 with these comments. You can see them in the store Nagle
